B"H

Shalom!

In March of 2005 Rabbi Nochum and Chanie Katsenelenbogen moved to Owings Mills to establish a branch of the worldwide Chabad - Lubavitch network.

Chabad Lubavitch, the world's largest Jewish educational outreach organization, is a vibrant and dynamic force in Jewish life. Its programs touch the lives of millions of people. Chabad treasures the infinite value of every individual and is committed to enriching the lives of all Jews through its multiple programs and services.

Our mission at Chabad of Owings Mills is to provide every Jewish individual - man, woman and child - with a place and opportunity to experience the beauty and warmth of Judaism. Please take a moment to select the programs that most interest you.

Youth Zone Mitz-fun Club

Be a Part of It!

Hey Kids,

Be a part of a great new youth club! We've got the works - arts & crafts, music, games, food and a really great time. But there is something else that's really important. In this club, YOU will help make the world a better place. You and other Jewish children (ages 5-10) can combine Mitzvot and fun together! Besides all the great activities, you will be part of social-action adventures - like helping Israeli soldiers, or preparing special gifts for not-so-lucky children in far
